About CGC Jhanjeri

Chandigarh Group of Colleges, Jhanjeri (CGC-J), located in Mohali, Punjab, India, is a premier Institution with NAAC A+ Accreditation. CGC-J achieved a remarkable debut in NIRF ranking in 2024 with 101-150 band for Business School and 210-300 band for Engineering College at PAN India level. Our commitment to experiential learning and innovation has garnered numerous awards and recognition, making us one of the fastest-growing educational institutions. Our vibrant, multicultural campus is a home for more than 10,600 students from 25+ countries, fostering an inclusive and globalized learning environment.

About the Global Education Conclave 2025

As we navigate an era that demands sustainability, inclusivity, and technological advancement, we believe that higher education institutions must lead with purpose. The 2025 Global Education Conclave, themed "Leading with Purpose: Global Collaborations for a Sustainable, Inclusive, and Technologically Advanced Future," aims to unite institutions and thought leaders from across the globe to discuss strategies for impactful collaborations in research, innovation, and sustainable development.

We would be honoured to have you as a Guest Speaker at the Conclave, scheduled for March 29-30, 2025, at Chandigarh Group of Colleges, Jhanjeri, Mohali, Punjab. Your insights and experiences would be invaluable in guiding our faculty, students, and attendees on fostering purposeful global collaborations that drive meaningful change.

Chandigarh: The City Beautiful

Chandigarh, often hailed as "The City Beautiful," is a remarkable blend of modernity and nature, serving as a symbol of urban planning and architectural excellence. Designed by the renowned architect Le Corbusier, this vibrant city is renowned for its spacious layout, lush gardens, and iconic landmarks, including the Rock Garden and Sukhna Lake. As the capital of both Punjab and Haryana, Chandigarh is not only a hub of administrative activities but also a center for education, culture, and innovation. Its rich history, diverse community, and thriving arts scene make it an ideal backdrop for the Global Education Conclave 2025, where ideas will flourish and collaborations will take root, paving the way for a sustainable and inclusive future.
